Samantha, 27

Obtained Master's degree and is working as an Outpatient Therapist Worked as a MODIFY specialist after graduation

“The only way that I was able to not quit school and make enough money to survive was by having the MODIFY [funding] supplementing my income.”

“I knew that I wanted to be a social worker because I had a fabulous social worker. She made me want to help people. I wasn't willing to quit college and I wouldn't give up.”
